4. Answer: (d)

5) Answer: (d)

- The Arabic translation of the word "Rabi" is spring. These crops' harvesting happens in the springtime hence the name. The Rabi season usually starts in November and lasts up to March or April. Rabi crops are mainly cultivated using irrigation since monsoons are already over by November. In fact, unseasonal showers in November or December can ruin the crops. The seeds are sown at the beginning of autumn, which results in a spring harvest. Wheat, barley, mustard and green peas are some of the major rabi types of crops that grow in India.

6. Answer: (a)

- There is a short season between Kharif and Rabi season in the months of March to July. The crops that grow in this season are Zaid crops. These crops are grown on irrigated lands and do not have to wait for monsoons. Some examples of Zaid types of crops are pumpkin, cucumber, bitter gourd.

ABOUT PAST PERFORMANCE

"The real credit of my success goes to LUKMAAN IAS. The institute not only provided academic guidance but also motivational support during my UPSC journey. I owe my conceptual clarity, presentation and writing skills in GS papers, essay, ethics case studies and public administration to LUKMAAN IAS. I would like to give special credit to Ansari Sir's tireless efforts and personal guidance for my performance. (Also part of ED Classes).

ABHILASH MISHRA, AIR 05 CSE 2016

GS MARKS 444

I did the 100 current affairs class by Ansari sir at LUKMAAN IAS. The conceptual clarity and lateral thinking that Sir encouraged was amazing. I also referred to the ED booklets for my 2016 attempt and succeeded in scoring great marks in GS. I thank Sir for his kind guidance and support.

ANAND VARDHAN, AIR 07, CSE 2016

GS MARKS 470

Ansari Sir's grasp over Ethics and Polity paper is impeccable. His ability to make us understand different concepts with current examples helps one to write "fresh" answers. In Ansari Sir's classes I not only used to grasp what he says but also how he thinks. (Also part of ED Classes).

VINOD DUHAN, AIR 74, CSE 2017

GS MARKS 495

First of all, I thank LUKMAAN IAS for giving me valuable guidance and constant support. When I came to Delhi for the 1st time I joined GS Test Series of LUKMAAN which helped me a lot. Ansari Sir helped me to improve upon my writing skills for which he took various answer writing improvement programs. Also ED Class helped me to build rational thinking and balanced views which helped during my interview preparation. LUKMAAN IAS also helps students who come from rural background and help them to improve their skills, thus I recommend students to go for LUKMAAN Test Series as well as ED classes and get valuable guidance from the academy.

BHUVANESH PATIL, AIR 59, CSE 2018
